ITEM 3

TO: Montgomery County Planning Board
FROM: Lois Villemaire, Project Manager, Zoning Code Rewrite L. Villemaire
SUBJECT: Zoning Advisory Panel Replacement Appointments

Two replacement members have been nominated by the Chair to serve on the Zoning Advisory Panel effective immediately. This is the body that serves as a sounding board for the Zoning Code Rewrite project.

Martin Klauber held the position of the People's Counsel for Montgomery County for 10 years. In this position, he helped citizens understand and participate effectively in land use hearings and to protect the public by participating in land use hearings to ensure that all relevant zoning and planning issues are addressed. Prior to this role, Martin was the former Hearing Examiner for Montgomery County, a position which he held for twelve years. He has provided legal and general counsel to a diverse group clients and employers, which include the National Capital Planning Commission and Chilean Minister of Housing and Urban Affairs. Martin is the co-founder and chair of the Maryland Land Use Round Table, and a guest lecturer at the George Washington University School of Law and University of Baltimore School of Law. He holds graduate and law degrees from George Washington University, as well as undergraduate degree from Rutgers University. Martin is a resident of Bethesda.

Casey Anderson is a partner at Kauffman/Anderson, a litigation consulting firm. He is a former newspaper reporter and congressional staffer and has extensive experience in antitrust, intellectual property, mass torts, accounting and securities fraud, and employment discrimination cases. Casey is a member of the boards of the Washington Area Bicyclist Association, the Citizens League of Montgomery County, the Coalition to Stop Gun Violence, and the Committee for Montgomery. He is also the vice president of the Woodside Civic Association and executive vice chairman of the Silver Spring Citizens Advisory Board. He holds undergraduate and law degrees from Georgetown and a graduate degree in journalism from Columbia. Casey lives in Silver Spring with his wife, Mary Boyle, their son, Kelly, and their daughter, Tyler.
