C. Consolidation. Adjoining properties in the Rural Residential or Residential Detached zones, not developed under cluster provisions, may be combined in the following ways:

   a. any conditions applicable to the original subdivision remain in effect;

   b. the number of trips generated on the new lot do not exceed those permitted for the original lots; and

   c. all required right-of-way dedication is provided.

2. by consolidating an existing platted lot or part of a lot that contains a legally constructed detached house, with a piece of land created as a result of a deed, if:

   a. the portion of land created by deed cannot itself be platted under the area and dimensional standards of the zone;

   b. any conditions applicable to the existing lot remain in effect on the new lot;

   d. the existing platted lot was not identified as an outlot on a plat.
