Staff recommends approval of this minor subdivision plat pursuant to Sections 50.7.1.C.1. and 50.7.1.F.2. of the Subdivision Regulations, which states:

- C. Consolidation. Adjoining properties in the Rural Residential or Residential Detached zones, not developed under cluster provisions, may be combined in the following ways:
1. by consolidating 2 or more lots into a single lot, consolidating lots and an outlot into a single lot, or consolidating a lot and an abandoned road right-of-way, if:
 - a. any conditions applicable to the original subdivision remain in effect;
 - b. the number of trips generated on the new lot do not exceed those permitted for the original lots; and
 - c. all required right-of-way dedication is provided.
 2. by consolidating an existing platted lot or part of a lot that contains a legally constructed detached house, with a piece of land created as a result of a deed, if:
 - a. the portion of land created by deed cannot itself be platted under the area and dimensional standards of the zone;
 - b. any conditions applicable to the existing lot remain in effect on the new lot;
 - c. any required road dedication is provided; and
 - d. the existing platted lot was not identified as an outlot on a plat.
- F. Plat of correction. A plat of correction may be used for any of the following:
1. to correct inaccurate or incomplete information shown on a previously recorded plat, such as drafting or dimensional errors on the drawing; failure to include a required note, dedication, easement or other restriction; incorrect or omitted signatures; or other information normally required to be shown on a recorded plat. All owners and trustees of the land affected by the correction must sign the revised plat. In addition, the plat of correction must identify the original plat and contain a note identifying the nature of the correction;

2. to revise easements to reflect a Board action;
3. to improve clarity and legibility, the owner of any lands shown on a record plat may record an exact copy of the plat, except for necessary change of scale and the addition of any other necessary elements to make the plat conform to the requirements of this Chapter. The new plat must indicate that it is an exact copy of the original plat except for the changes made under this Subsection.

Staff applied the above-noted minor subdivision criteria for the property included in this application and concludes that the proposed subdivision complies with the requirements of Section 50.7.1.C.1. and 50.7.1.F.2. in accordance with the amended Forest Conservation Plan No. 11987272A and supports this minor subdivision record plat.
