Hamid, after speaking to you, I realized that it would be better to revise your current permit to only show disturbance on the small lot. Then after you have the pre-construction meeting for that work, you could ask the DPS-SEC inspector about the disturbance being less than 5,000 sf on the main lot.

Thanks.

Awesome idea Sherry. I just talked with the inspector and he's ok with the plan.
Can I upload a revised plan into the system that only shows the 18" pipe? please advise.
Thank you,
Hamid

Yes, the task is in your court right now. Make sure to use the same PDF name as previously uploaded, so it will overwrite the previous version.

If your contractor has a more detailed drawing that could be uploaded to the support drawings folder, that would be helpful, but it is not required.

Thanks Sherry, both are revised and uploaded to the system.

I really appreciate your recommendation. It must have saved me many hours chasing the exemption letter.

Hamid
